
Bringing Home Musical Honours: Winning the Swarsamaradni Inter-school Singing Competition

Pune, Maharashtra | 1st August, 2026

The students of S.B. Patil Public School showcased their musical talent with great enthusiasm at the Swarsamaradni Inter-school Singing Competition, organised by Cambridge International School, Akurdi, on 1st August, 2026, bringing pride to the school through their commendable performances.

The Grades VII to X choir earned the First Consolation Trophy, receiving the award from Pandit Anand Bhimsen Joshi, son of the legendary Bharat Ratna Pandit Bhimsen Joshi, and renowned Hindustani classical vocalist Pandit Nagesh Adgaonkar. The performance was guided by Ms. Sulochna Pawar, with Mr. Sanmit Ranadive providing excellent tabla accompaniment.

The Grades III to V choir also represented the school with confidence and enthusiasm, receiving a Participation Memento Trophy. Their performance was mentored by Ms. Sulochna Pawar, Ms. Maithili, and Mr. Deepak Ballal, whose guidance encouraged the young singers to perform with confidence and grace.

The competition provided students with a valuable platform to showcase their talent, develop confidence, and appreciate the rich heritage of Indian music. S.B. Patil Public School congratulates all the participants and mentors on this wonderful achievement and wishes them continued success in their musical journey.
